Dear friends,

There is a fable about a man who was browsing in a store when he made the interesting discovery that God was behind the sales counter. So the man walked over and asked, What are You selling? To which God replied, What does your heart desire? The man thought for a long minute and replied, I want happiness, peace of mind, and freedom from fear . . . for me and the whole world. Whereupon God smiled and said, I don't sell fruit here. Only seeds.

Much of Christian ministry is like that. As missionaries, we go out sowing seeds while knowing that it is God who gives the increase. Pray with us that as we come alongside hurting and frustrated colleagues, we will sow in them the seeds of encouragement that God can use to revitalize them and their ministries. And, as always, thank you for making this ministry possible.
