Ministries International

February 2010

Dear friends,

Having recently moved residences, I came across this “reminder” in one of my files.

How To Pray For Missionaries

Rather than praying, “God bless the Missionaries, Amen.” Ask that our Heavenly Father will:

- Give them a measure of health that will best glorify Him.
- Give them a deepening trust and willingness to pay the price of consecration.
- Give them time for prayer and study of the Word.
- Give them the grace and determination to meet every obstacle.
- Give them diligence in ministerial preparation.
- Help them overcome temptation.
- Give them wisdom and guidance in raising their children.
- Give strength in overcoming loneliness, irritations, and misunderstandings.
- Provide for their material needs according to His will.
- Give wisdom in knowing what to do and when to do it.

And, as always, thank you so much for your support that allows us to continue
